2. A revision of the regulation was necessary in order to designate the Inspector General a member of the Supergrade Review Board in accordance with the Director's memo of 26 May 1959. However, it appears to be an appropriate time to also change the regulation to provide for the clarification of the assignment of grades to individuals in the supergrades rather than attaching the grades purely to positions. Therefore, the regulation has been rewritten to reflect this change and has been retitled "Management of Supergrade Personnel."

3. In accordance with an agreement with the Bureau of the Budget, the number of supergrade personnel authorized by the Director will be based on an Office of Personnel classification survey of Agency positions. Further, the Office of Personnel has the responsibility of making an annual survey of supergrade positions, or more often if requested by the Deputy Directors. The Supergrade Review Board has the responsibility of reviewing the results of the surveys and making appropriate recommendations to the Director. As the proposed regulation deals with the management of supergrade personnel, I do not believe it necessary to include procedural aspects of establishing supergrade positions.

4. The Office of the General Counsel has concurred in this revision, and a copy of their memorandum is attached.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Personnel

SUBJECT : Revision of Regulation Supergrade Positions

25X1

1. We have received the proposed revision of subject regulation which was transmitted with your memorandum of 27 July 1959, and we perceive no legal objection to its publication.

2. We feel that the emphasis on the attachment of supergrades to the individual rather than to the position is of particular importance.

3. It is suggested that in paragraph 4(d), for the sake of greater clarity, you may wish to substitute "Director of Central Intelligence" for "Director."
